

Vaccine CDVac Botulism

Vaccine for prevention against Botulism in cattle, sheep, goats, and horses.

Composition: Toxoids of Clostridium botulinum type C and Clostridium botulinum type D, strains isolated from clinical cases, and with aluminum hydroxide as adjuvant.

Dosage and route of administration: Cattle and horses: 5 ml; subcutaneous route. Sheep and goats: 2 ml; subcutaneous route. Apply two doses at an interval of 20-30 days in primo inoculation above three months old. Revaccinate once or twice a year, apply according to professional criterion. Pregnant females at any quarter of pregnancy can be vaccinated.

Presentation: Bottle containing 250 ml (50 doses for cattle and horses and 80 doses for sheep and goats).

Certificate: 11-030

#SmartHealth